

Lamont Siller

VP, Global Security
Alorica

Lamont brings to Alorica 20-years in law enforcement, as a Senior Investigator at the Nevada Attorney General's Office, and a Supervisory Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). During his career with the FBI, he worked white collar crime (public corruption, financial institution fraud, and money laundering) and national security (counterterrorism) in the San Diego Division, FBIHQ (Washington, DC) and Manila, Philippines (U.S. Embassy).

Lamont serves as Alorica's Vice President of Global Security, where he leads a Global Security team across 15 countries and 100 sites, responsible for all physical security (access control and cameras) management, as well as all misconduct and high-profile internal investigations. He is a Certified Information Security Manager (CISM) and a Certified Protection Professional (CPP).

